Bring Maker Faire Back to NYC!

We're bringing Maker Faire back to New York City! This time, we're bringing it to the world-famous amusement destination of Coney Island, Brooklyn!

Maker Faire is the big yearly event where we celebrate makers, creators, innovators, and enthusiasts. It's a chance for everyone to come together and showcase their skills and talents, and share them with the world! With over 20 acres of outdoor space and a rich history of innovation and technical prowess, Coney Island is the perfect setting for a Maker Faire.

Coney Island's history is entertainment, incorporating science and technology - from the birth of the rollercoaster to the advancement of postnatal care via the earliest Infant Incubators, it's a place of wonder and magic where fun and entertainment merge with engineering.

Maker Faire Coney Island gives attendees the opportunity to explore cutting-edge technology and experience the latest in 3D printing, robotics, and more. The great joy of Maker Faire is the wide variety of things to see and do, to eat and smell, and to experience. Previous projects exhibited at Maker Faire include enormous car-crushing robotic hands, gigantic skee-ball machines, drone races, and a life-sized Mousetrap board game Rube Goldberg machine.

Coney Island has the advantage over prior Faire locations in easy access to transit, amenities, services, and availability of food for Faire attendees. Alongside Nathan's Famous Hot-Dogs, there are a wide variety of restaurants to visit, both on the Coney Island Boardwalk, and around Coney Island - Gargiulo's Restaurant, Paul's Daughter, Pete's Clam Bar, Ruby's Bar and Grill, the international flair of our Midway, and many others.
